

Privacy Policy

1. Your Privacy

In-Tec Commercial Cleaning (In-Tec) respects your right to privacy and is committed to safeguarding the privacy of users of the In-Tec website.

This policy sets out how we collect and treat your personal information when you use the In-Tec website.

'Personal information' is information that In-Tec collects and holds, and which is identifiable as being about you, the customer or website user (Personal Information).

2. Collection of Personal Information

In order to access and use components of In-Tec's website, you may be requested to provide your Personal Information

This may include, but is not limited to, Personal Information such as your name, address and contact information or any other Personal Information requested or required by In-Tec, or that is provided by you.

3. Use of Personal Information

In-Tec may use your Personal Information to provide you with further information, updates and notices with respect to the services, make you aware of new opportunities available to you, and to improve the products and services supplied by In-Tec.

Information that is not Personal Information, such as website browser type, version, language, operating system, pages viewed and page access time, may also be collected, and is used solely for the purpose of identifying website user traffic and trends, as well as personalising content for you on the In-Tec website.

4. Disclosure of Personal Information

Collected Personal Information may be disclosed to employees, officers, insurers, professional advisers, agents, suppliers or subcontractors of In-Tec, but only for the purposes as contained in this policy or where there is a necessary requirement to disclose the information in assisting the provision of the services that In-Tec provide.

Where In-Tec is required to disclose Personal Information to third parties, In-Tec will endeavour to take reasonable steps to ensure that third parties adopt and adhere to this policy.

Disclosure of your Personal Information that In-Tec holds about you may also be required in order to comply with a legal requirement, such as a law, regulation, court order, subpoena, warrant, in the course of a legal proceeding or in response to a law enforcement agency request, or to protect the copyright, trademarks, legal rights, property or safety of In-Tec, its customers or third parties.

5. Security of Personal Information

In-Tec will endeavour to take reasonable steps necessary to ensure that the Personal Information you provide to In-Tec is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, In-Tec endeavours to have appropriate physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure information, as well as protect it from misuse, interference, loss and unauthorised access, modification and disclosure.

6. Access to your Personal Information

You may request details of your Personal Information that In-Tec holds about you subject to any exceptions at law.

If you would like access to your Personal Information which In-Tec holds, or you believe that any Personal Information that In-Tec holds about you is inaccurate, out of date, incomplete, irrelevant or misleading, please email us at meettheteam@in-tec.com.au.

7. Changes to this Privacy Policy

In-Tec, in its sole discretion, may modify this policy at any time. Users of the In-Tec website should review this policy regularly.

8. Cookies

In-Tec may, in its absolute discretion, make use of 'cookies' on its website. Cookies are very small files which a website uses to identify you when you come back to the site as well as store details about your use of the site.

You can choose to reject cookies by changing your browser settings. However, this may prevent you from taking full advantage of In-Tec's website.

In-Tec may, from time to time, utilise the data provided by cookies to analyse website traffic and help In-Tec to provide a better website user experience.

9. Links

This website may contain links to other websites. In-Tec is not responsible for the privacy practices of third-party websites. We encourage users of the In-Tec website to read the privacy statements of each and every third-party website that you may visit as a result of a link.

10. Contact us

If you have any questions relating to this policy, or the use of your Personal Information, please contact In-Tec by emailing meettheteam@in-tec.com.au.
